TO

Provide for Open Spaces and Public Recreation Grounds in Dublin. A.D. 1887.

WHEREAS it is expedient to afford facilities for making available the open spaces in the Dublin metropolitan district for the use of the inhabitants for exercise and recreation similar or analogous to the facilities now provided by statute for London, and
 5 whereas in the present session of Parliament a Bill, intituled "The Metropolitan Open Spaces (Extension) Bill," has been introduced to extend certain statuteable powers generally to sanitary authorities throughout the Kingdom; and whereas it is necessary for the effective exercise of those powers in the city of 10 Dublin that certain legislative provisions in operation throughout the rest of Ireland should be made operative within the said city:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and 15 by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the Dublin Open Spaces Act, 1887.

2. In this Act "the corporation" means the right honourable the lord mayor, aldermen, and burgesses acting by the town council
 20 of Dublin.

3. For the purposes of the Metropolitan Open Spaces (Extension) Act, in its application to the city of Dublin, it shall and may be lawful for the corporation to narrow such roads as the borough surveyor may report to be unnecessarily wide, and to stop up any 25 roads which may appear to them to be useless.

Open Spaces Act, 1837 and 1881.
 40 & 41 Vict. c. 55.
 44 & 45 Vict. c. 34.

Interpretation.
